"Home Transitions"

Order of Service: Sunday, July 27, 2025

Prelude

Katie Klaerich

Gathering Hymn: "Come, Come, Whoever You Are"

(please stand - sing 2x)

Come, come, whoever you are
Wanderer, worshiper, lover of leaving
Ours is no caravan of despair
Come, yet again, come

Children's Recessional Hymn #414

(sing 2x as children leave service)

"As we leave this friendly place, love gives light to every face;
May the kindness which we learn, light our hearts till we return."

Centering Hymn and Covenant

#123 "Spirit of Life" / #31 "Fuente de Amor"

Words and Music by Carolyn McDade

Spanish lyrics by Ervin Barrios

Spirit of Life, come unto me;

Sing in my heart all the stirrings of compassion.

Blow in the wind, rise in the sea;
Move in the hand, giving life the shape of justice.
Roots hold me close; wings set me free;
Spirit of Life, come to me, come to me.

Fuente de Amor, ven hacia mí.
Y al corazón, cántale tu compasión.
Sopla al volar, sube en el mar,
Hasta moldear la justicia de la vida.
Arráigame, libérame,
Fuente de Amor, ven a mí, ven a mí.

Fellowship Covenant

“May love be the spirit of this congregation;
May the quest for truth be its sacrament
And service be its prayer;
To dwell together in peace,
To seek knowledge in freedom,
And to help one another in fellowship.
This is our Covenant.”

Closing Hymn #1021 Lean on Me

Extinguishing the Chalice

Mary Anne Trause

"We extinguish this flame, but not the light of truth,
the warmth of community, or the fire of commitment.
These we carry in our hearts until we are together again."

Benediction

Rev. Heather Megill

Postlude

Katie Klaerich

Welcome visitors! We are delighted you are here. Immediately following the service, we invite everyone to join on the central patio to enjoy refreshments and conversation, meet new friends, and gather in fellowship.

Announcements for Sunday, July 27, 2025

OpenOceans Global is July 27 Generosity Sunday Beneficiary

OpenOceans Global is a solutions-oriented non-profit focused on stemming the flow of plastic to the ocean. Its geographic approach views plastic on shorelines as the end of the supply chain, and it uses a reverse supply chain model to search upstream, identify and map the pathways and the best places to stop the plastics flow.

Plastics on the beach: Seventy-five percent of ocean plastic is located on beaches and reaches those shorelines in three ways: (1) rivers, (2) local litter left on the beach, and (3) fishing gear or other maritime debris. OpenOceans uses research, data, and analysis to:

- Document and map global hotspots where significant amounts of plastic collect.
- Identify the best solutions.
- Seek out the best plastic experts and local leaders.

UUFSD members' donations will support technology at the core of OpenOceans' work.

GroupiNext Update

Today, July 27; 11:30am; Founders Hall West

All are invited to the first gathering to discuss follow-on to my sermon on "Groupiness." If you are interested in helping start an outreach effort to people in other churches and religious organizations, to identify and lift up our many shared values and concerns, and haven't already filled out the form, please feel free to attend or email me. Thanks. Lisa Shaffer, Lshaffer@ucsd.edu

Solar Program UUFSD Fundraiser Event

Sunday, August 3; 11:30am-12:15pm; Founders Hall

Prefer to attend virtually? Fill out this form and

Haven will send you an email with a link to join on Sunday:

How to get a free solar + battery system... Join our 30-minute webinar/live meeting to learn about the CA State SGIP Program. Learn about the program details and rules and how to sign up for a free solar system with backup battery or add a backup battery to your existing solar system. This program is currently funded on a first come basis so you may want to get started before this August 3 UUFSD event. UUFSD will receive a donation of $500 for each household that signs up and is accepted and you can get a free backup battery to add to existing solar system. (This program is funded by the State of California called "SGIP". Meet income requirement: Look at line 9 (total Income) on your 2024 1040 tax form to get Annual Income.) See links in the newsletter. Contact Ted Foster for more information at communitypower@uufsd.org.

Social Justice Actions from the Comfort of Your Home

Can you spare 10 minutes a week? Every week the Social Justice Action Committee publishes a list of various justice actions that members and friends can take from the comfort of their homes. These are messages to Congressmen, Senators and Local and State officials on a variety of issues. We ask you to add your name to at least one, that resonates with you. Please open the Social Justice page of the weekly newsletter and go to "Justice Actions-Take Action," for the listing.

Auction Donation Ideas!!

Sunday, Oct 12; 11am-2pm; Core Area

Due to proposed construction on UUFSD parking areas, this year's auction will be held in two parts: online in October and live on May 16, 2026. Preparations are beginning for the online event. We need you to think about donations. We'd like you to offer dinners, services, special talents and events. If you donate a dinner, activity or event, please put the date of the offering in your description to avoid the hassle of scheduling it later. See the link in the newsletter for a bunch of ideas. You can fill out a donation form at the auction table on the patio after Sunday services. Donation forms are needed by October 1 with online bidding beginning on Friday, October 3 and ending on Sunday October 12. We plan to have the last day of bidding in person either at the fellowship or, if that's not possible, at another location. Mark your calendar and put your thinking cap on. Let's create an abundance of activities that will show off our talents and bring us together in fellowship!

The July Quarterly Magazine is Here

Our July Quarterly Magazine has arrived. We've had a busy three months. Our activities included numerous Social Justice Actions, a Baroque to Brahms chamber music concert, a remarkable and unforgettable Music Sunday, a successful Family Camp at Debenerville Pines, and much more. You can access the July Magazine at: <https://uufsd.org/news/publications/quarterly-magazine/> Enjoy!

Join Social Justice on Signal and Take Action!

Tired of not knowing when and where rallies and protests are taking place? Join UUFSD's Signal group and be in the know. It's easy: download the Signal App and contact Andi MacLeod at andi.macleod@gmail.com to learn more and to get an invitation. See you on Signal!

Please Keep it Coming: CRC Donations

Thank you for your generous donations of food and other items for the CRC Food Pantry. We need to keep it coming, as ever more clients are added to the roles. So please bring your donations to the service and place them in the basket at the front by the podium. Thanks again.

Backpack Project

Sundays in July; 9-11:30am; Core Area

We will be collecting school supplies and backpacks Sunday mornings from July 6th to July 27th. The Dollar Store, 5 or Less, and Target are good places to shop. We will also collect money and will use it to round out the supplies. The backpacks/school supplies will be distributed to local schools for underprivileged children in need. For more information, please contact Betsy Gilpin at betsygilpin01@gmail.com.

Unitarian Universalist congregations affirm and promote eight Principles, which we hold as strong values and moral guides.

- 1) The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
- 2) Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
- 3) Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
- 4) A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
- 5) The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
- 6) The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
- 7) Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part;
- 8) Journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse and multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.
